

WE NEED YOU!

Be our partner in education!

Arcadia students have the best chance to succeed when families and school staff work together. Only when our classroom instruction is combined with your support for learning at home will every Arcadia student reach his or her full potential. Help your roadrunner be a scholar!

ROAD RUNNER

ONE WHO HAS A PASSION FOR LIFE-LONG LEARNING, RESPECT FOR SELF AND OTHERS, AND AN APPRECIATION FOR INDIVIDUAL DIFFERENCES.

HOME-SCHOOL COMPACT

LIFE SKILLS

By the end of the year, your student should be able to do the following main things:

1. Persevere
2. Be resilient
3. Have good attendance

You can help at home by:

- Setting up night and morning routines to review homework and make sure students are well rested.
- Encourage student to keep trying, even though things may be difficult.
- Model perseverance and resilience in your own life.
- Make sure your student attends school and is on time.
- Model a positive mindset and encourage your student to have a positive attitude about school.

ACADEMIC SKILLS

By the end of the year, your student should be able to do the following main things:

1. Persevere
2. Be resilient
3. Have good attendance

You can help at home by:

- Make sure your child is at school.
- Encouraging your student to read 20 minutes or more at home every day. Make reading fun!
- Asking "W" questions: who, what, when, where, why?
- Practicing math facts using flashcards.
- Ensuring your student uses online programs at home (I-Ready and Lexia).

GRADUATE OF GRANITE CHARACTERISTICS

Work Hard & Be Resilient: Persevere when faced with challenges and setbacks. Have a well-grounded sense of confidence, optimism, and self-efficacy.

Communicate Well: Communicate effectively to share and understand information.

Be Respectful: Acknowledge differences by looking for the good in everyone, including oneself, and show due regard for feelings, rights, cultures, and traditions.

Be Responsible: Be trustworthy, ethical, reliable, and accountable for individual choices.

Be Dependable: Be reliable and accountable.

You can help at home by:

- Modeling these characteristics for your student.
- Show enthusiasm for learning.
- Help your student understand how comments and actions impact others.
- Provide opportunities for your student to practice these characteristics and teach them in your home.
