Item 8: Safe Walking Route	Speakers:	Time:
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • https://www.saferoutesutahmap.com/map/school-maps/neil-armstrong-academy-624 • Restructuring/reflow of pick up/drop off in parking lot • Safe walking route still good

Item 9: Open Forum	Speakers:	Time:
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Dog poop on playgrounds - ask PTA for more cameras on playground in the future, their budget is lean this year. Possibly having students make signs, facebook post • Bullying in the news - Sharp survey results, Armstrong's numbers are lower than neighboring schools. The students widely feel safe at Armstrong. Armstrong is aware of who the bullies are and are actively working on it with SST team and social worker. • Digital bullying - we need to do more explicit teaching to give students the supports they need to be safe in the digital world. Possibly having a booth at SEP conferences to give parents information. • Granger Network event Thursday, Nov. 11 • School lunch - parents are saying they hate the school lunch program. Staffing and supply chain issues.

Our school needs 5 lunch workers and have been running on sub lunch workers, just hired kitchen manager two weeks ago. Frozen turkey sandwiches served today, kids unable to eat it and going hungry.
