10:00am - 4:00pm EST

Aviation Safety
STEM Career Symposium

The FAA Aviation Safety (AVS) STEM Career Symposium is designed to educate students (middle school, high school, and college students) about STEM/aviation-related career opportunities and engage them to focus on the studies and experiences that will help them enter challenging and rewarding careers in aviation. For more information please contact Aisha Kirkland, AVS STEM Program Manager via email: aisha.k.kirkland@faa.gov.
