

Community Council Agenda
November 3, 2016
Calvin Smith Elementary
Media Center

1. Welcome
 - Cindy Dunn, Erin Spencer, Kimberly Dean, Kristen Logan, Michelle Benson, Brandy Seaman, Lindsay Cottell, Renee- DeHaan
2. Approval of minutes
 - Minutes approved
3. Principal's Reports – Cindy Dunn
 - SSAP plan is what drives where we put our LandTrust money. SSAP is overall school goals set for students/school.
 - Our first goal is a reading goal, you can measure by DIBELS or Benchmarks and we went with DIBELS. The district assigns and sets the % of growth
 - Second goal is math- we can either use SAGE or Benchmark tests to set our goal. We put SAGE as our goal which is a 3% growth goal
 - Motion to approve SSAP 2017 - APPROVED

4. Follow up business

Christmas Celebration

- Celebration will be held at the school as normal
- Grades k-6 will just go through
- Anticipate more parents again, look in to getting more chairs available for parents
- Wednesday, December 21st will be our sing-along

Land trust addendum

- Nothing to change
- Council training www.schoollandtrust.org

Idle Free zone

- Parking seems to be going well

Cookies and Spirit night

- November 10th at Chic-Fil-A on Redwood from 5:00-8:00
- Check Thursday folders for information/paper to let them know they are here on behalf of Calvin Smith
- Our school will receive 20% of money

What exactly is Trustland's money supposed to be used for?

- LandTrust is used for student improvement- anything that can be used for student improvement- aides, professional development, teacher salaries

What happened to the PTA money from the Fundraiser last year – we were told it was going to the library.

- There was a roll over of $9,000
- Money was used for other PTA items
- $1500 was raised from the bookfair and $500 will go towards the library
- For next month we will add PTA fundraiser to the agenda to discuss money from last year and money raised from this year's book fair

Teacher's website – are they updated and pertinent info on the website

- Every teacher should have a website that is current and updated
- Weekly spelling words, calendars with updated information to keep parents up to date on what is going on in the class

5. PTA report

- We currently have 5 parents volunteering to help with STAR tutoring
- Look to see if PTA is able to cover any cost of finger-printing
- Next week is patriotic week and notes will be coming home

Next meeting December 1 @ 7:30 am

- Add PTA items to the agenda