*The meeting was called to order by Betsy Valora, chairperson at 3:15 p.m.

* We watched a short School Land Trust video, provided by the state, describing how schools can use the money given to them.

*Eisenhower is hosting a full-staff training on Proficiency Based Grading and RISE (the new standardized test). The training will be provided by Superintendent Bates.

*Testing for Benchmarks and mid-year Reading Inventory will be held in January. Schools have until February 1st to post. Eisenhower is hoping for 15% proficiency growth from the beginning of the year.

*Students will be participating in Festive Week December 17-21

Monday: Festive Hats

Tuesday: Pictures with Santa

Wednesday: Pajama Day

Thursday: Festive Sock Day

Friday: Ugly Sweater Day

Counselors The Counseling Center finished 8th grade College and Career Awareness Interviews on December 12. On December 11 the State conducted a formal review of Eisenhower Counseling Center. There were minimal recommendations and were told that they have set the bar high! Congratulations to the Counseling Center for being one of the best centers the review board has seen!! This review takes place every six years.

*PTSA hosted a fun Pie-Eating contest in November. They will pass out lunchtime treats on Friday, December 14 to PTSA members. In January they will be hosting a snowflake cutting contest during lunch.
