

Medical Terminology

GTI website <http://gti.graniteschools.org>

Course Information

Location: Granite Technical Institute
 2500 So. State Street

Offered to: 9-12 grades

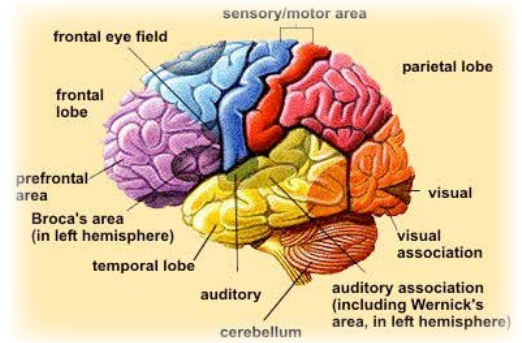

Transportation: School bus available to and from GTI

Registration: GTI Application (Signed by parent)

Period: 2-period block

Credits: 1.0 high school credit, college credit is available from SLCC (optional 11-12 Only)

Fees: Lab fees required

Cerebrum

You will Learn:

- Abbreviations
- Anatomy of the body
- Anatomical terms
- Medical words & elements
- Spelling & pronunciation
- Terms of movement
- Use of a medical dictionary

cardiac

cyanosis

PRN

asthma

stat

Hemorrhage: Bleeding, technically known as hemorrhaging or is the loss of blood from the circulatory system.

Requirements:

- 9 grade proficient reading level
- 2.5 GPA

CPR: Cardiopulmonary resuscitation (CPR) is an emergency medical procedure for a victim of cardiac arrest or, in some circumstances, respiratory arrest. CPR is performed in hospitals, or in the community by laypersons or by emergency response professionals.