

Biology Agricultural Science (Bio-Ag)

Taught with Aquaculture, Intro to

GTI website <http://gti.graniteschools.org>

Course Information

Location: Granite Technical Institute
2500 South State

Transportation: School bus available to and from GTI

Offered to: 9th grade

Registration: GTI Application (signed by parent)

Class Times: 1-period of 2 period block

Credits: 1.0

Length: Year

Fees: Lab fees required

Cool Things You'll Do....

- Design and conduct your own experiments
- Conduct experiments with cells
- Study traits
- Make wormy soil
- Grow plants with wormy soil
- Compete in FFA

Pathway Opportunities:

BioAg at the GTI is part of a larger educational and career opportunity.

It can lead to:

- Animal, Plant, and Vet Science courses
- Biotechnology courses
- Concurrent credit
- Summer high school credit
- Scholarships
- Internships
- FFA awards and leadership skill development

