Hartvigsen Student Dressed for Success!

Hello Hartvigsen School Families,

I hope you're off to a great start in this New Year!

I want to express my gratitude for the privilege of working with your exceptional students. Your hard work and dedication to supporting your children's education have not gone unnoticed.

As we step into the new year, let's embrace fresh opportunities for growth and success, in the many forms this takes. Your partnership is invaluable, and together, we can make the second half of this school year memorable for our students and their families. Thank you for being integral to the Hartvigsen School community. Feel free to reach out to me at any time—I am here and willing to discuss anything you may need or have on your mind.

Please take note of the dates on the following calendar page. We look forward to some fun upcoming activities and to warmer weather!

RESOURCE SPOTLIGHT

The UILC is non-residential facility that provides services which enhance the independence of people with disabilities.

The mission of the Utah Independent Living Center is to assist persons with disabilities achieve greater independence by providing services and activities which enhance independent living skills and promote the public's understanding, accommodation and acceptance of their rights, needs, and abilities.

A person must have a physical or mental disability which impairs activities of daily living and a reasonable expectation must exist that UILC's services will increase independence. Our services are provided at no cost. We are funded through State and Federal Grants and private donations.
