April Minutes

- Need to be amended to note that English magazine subscription vote was unanimous in favor
- Motion to approve by Ohran
- Seconded by Rasmussen

New Business:

- Reviewed statements from each department's academic advisor (previously approved)
- Community Council elections will be held in August for open positions
- Upcoming dates of importance: Senior Gala 20 May, Farewell Assembly 27 May, Graduation practice 31 May, Signing Day 31 May, Graduation 1 June 10 am at Maverik Center
 - Last week of school – encouraging faculty to attend graduation to support students. A few faculty members will stay at the school on 1 June for students who attend. No formal classes will be held. Lunch will be available.
- Girls' Softball team is playing in the state tournament
- Special Olympics Track and Field is 18 May at Copper Hills. HHS has a team.
- Discussion about having one color for graduation robes starting with the class of 2023
 - Many students are nonbinary or transgender so having one color is more inclusive of all students
 - When students are forced to choose a color based on gender, they may be outed before they are ready
 - Discussed colors – prefer the blue robes.
 - Motion to approve by Hamblin
 - Seconded by Rasmussen
 - Unanimous in favor of one color of robes.

No New Proposals
