NEW BUSINESS.

Item #1: Graduate of Granite

Details: A. Fishler explained the new citizenship policy that is piloted at Jefferson this year. The purpose of the Graduate of Granite program is to build 'soft skills' that employers require. This is appendage to PBIS which develops academic skills.

Item #2: Handbook Training

Details: Page 3 was read.

Item #3: Election of Officers

Details: The selection of Chairperson and Co-Chairperson were selected.

Item #4: Counselor Minute

Details: College Application week was celebrated October 10-12, 2022. Lunchtime activities were held all three days. Parents commented on enthusiastic response. The purpose was to introduce options for post-high school training and familiarize students with college terms in a fun manner. Counselors directed games during lunch and students earned prizes such as: chips, stickers or small candies for participation. Members of SCC asked for information and updates on scholarships, GTI, high school credits, parchment and FAFSA information. Counselors will include this information during high school registration.

Item #5: Dress Code

Details: Mr. Horton presented the school dress code and device policies for SCC input. Members asked if infractions would be part of citizenship grade. This option will be explored as Graduate of Granite is in the pilot stage.
