 Cheating, minor theft, gum, lying, gossiping/rumors/name calling, destruction of school property, disrespectful behavior to adult, inappropriate language or gesture
 3→

Level II: Parent notification
Repeated or chronic level 1 behaviors, vandalism, defiance, directive swearing or gesture, aggressive behavior, bully tactics, inappropriate touching, major theft, class disruption, throwing food.
 →3

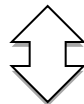

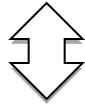

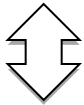

Level III: Administrative Referral
Repeated/chronic level 2 offenses
 Safety, fighting, sexual harassment, racial harassment, bullying, vandalism, drugs, tobacco, alcohol, weapons, firearm, stealing, inability to contact parents

Step One:
Warning/Reminder
 Discuss the problem with the student. Use the terminology with the student (“Change a color.”)

Blue Slip
Parent notification
 Student fills out Blue Slip and teacher determines appropriate consequence, loss of privilege. (no more than 1 recess missed)
 Teacher documents incident in educator handbook.

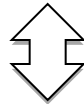

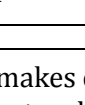

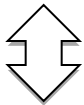

White Slip
 (Only issued by administrator)
 Administrator investigates the problem and determines consequences.

Step Two:
Stop and Think
 Teacher conference with student in classroom. (2-5 min.)

Behavior becomes a severe problem. Three “Stop and Go” forms in the same term automatically becomes a White Slip.

Contact with parents.

Step Three:
Stop and Go
 Student fills out “Stop & Go” form in another class. (15-20 min. sit-away and then return to class)

Teacher makes contact with parents: phone call, note home, contract, email, etc.

White Slip sent home for parent signature.

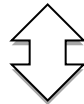

Back to class.

Positive consequences and rewards will be issued on an individual classroom basis as well as school-wide.

Possible conference involving student, parent, administrator, or law enforcement.

Student will miss at least 2 recesses and one activity for every white slip each term, including the NO WHITE SLIP CELEBRATION, field trips, assemblies, etc.
