

Week 12 Study Guide

Dialogue Monologue	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- People are ____! 'di- means '____' so it means at least ____ people sharing information and opinions.</li> <li>- ____ person is talking. 'mono - means ____, so it is one person alone on stage, having a soliloquy.</li> </ul>
Double	You do it ____, you get ____ of the same thing, you increase by ____ times (that's 200% and twins).
Parallel	In math, your straight lines lie in the same plane but ____ ____ no matter how far you extend them or if you are using planes in geometry, your planes have _____ perpendiculars. You have lines which go the same _____, and they are always the same distance apart (equidistant at all points), and they never meet up or get separated (never converging or diverging) FOREVER as in that one kind of parking you have to do on the street!
Provoke	You cause someone to ____ or to _____ by asking them a profound question, or by eating and not sharing right in front of them.
Systems of Equations	You have a list of _____ that measure and use the same _____ (such as distance, time, and rate of speed). Also, we are seeking ____ of the answers. We know there is a list of equations that describe our puzzle, already. We solve our puzzles by graphing the equations, eliminating variables, and substituting equivalent expressions. The variables have to represent the same *thing all the time in your puzzle. *thing =value, numbers, ideas, etc.
Topic	We are talking about _____ main idea. We use main ideas and _____ to talk or write, telling what we think about this one idea. We don't _____ and eat chicken. This sentence introduces the main idea of your paragraph to your reader.
Vertical	Straight ____ ____ - you can also say it is upright, plumb, and true. You might know what 'perpendicular' means, so you know this is perpendicular to the plane of the horizon. This suggests a line or direction rising toward a zenith.
Which Witch	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- A ____, asking to be _____ about one of many</li> <li>- A woman (usually) claiming to have _____ or to use _____</li> </ul>