Light the Fight Training – “Don’t Freak Out” event	Jen Christensen	Presentation to the faculty- -People came away with renewed sense of building relationships and importance of them -Ways to build relationships -Gave a lot of book resources -Looking for signs at beginning and how to talk with students -Good faculty response -partnership with Vans- gives shoes away to students -David started a class for social/emotional learning -looking for ways to add curriculum into freshman success class - could also add it to Driver’s Ed. Make each one quarter What can teachers expect for follow up What can parents expect for follow up What tools can we expect or get later on (needs to have follow up) Date for students (Jen thinks Jan. 28)	Request for follow up for both teachers and parents

Especially for Athletes – Bullying Training	Jen Christensen	We had a Bullying meeting for all athletes We wanted to let students know about the microscope they are in How do we report bullying David Smith- works with Ty Detmer Eyes up do the work- How to be kind and be a leader Look up especially for athletes- Night in January to attend- goes hand in hand with Light the Fight Ways to be a leader and stand up for other students in school This day is January 12- Way to invite both 8th grade groups coming up- Impact on students between Olympus and Evergreen and how they relate to each other. Long conversation on equity of sports between Evergreen and Olympus Jr. Are there ways to give more students opportunity? More money to help fund social and emotional events this year.	Invite 8 th grade students also
Course Selection – January Updates – Courses	Jen Christensen	Next meeting we can look at all the classes that we are adding and offering Supports for Freshman Success AP Freshman Success and Freshman Success for athletes Evergreen 7th grade students- half are missing teachers—(Math and English and half way through science teacher will leave)
Review Continual Improvement Plan – Questions	Jen Christensen	No changes right now
Basketball Court	Jen Christensen	Won 460 games- Currently the 11th most winning coach in Utah Proposed to name the basketball court after him Goes to Community Council vote, discussion and backing Submit to Assistant Superintendency- Who is asking for the proposal? A few parents, Athletic Director, some Community members- Make members aware and will vote on for January Meeting- Brought up that there could be something divisive on this- Worth review and look over and see the proposal in January- Is it a group, is it a person, is there money behind it?	This will be brought to January meeting.
