Business items:

Budget: Camille Ebert

Doing ok – will be in good standing for next year; receipts will be handed in this month for lunchtime and SEP teacher meals (volunteers: soups and salads) – will help go below budget; only $20 differ on balance

Volunteer Hours & Membership: Heidi Dudley gathering volunteer hours for submittal at end of February

Newsletter: Natalie Boss – contact for items to have in newsletter

Teacher Awards: Tina Seastrand

Mr Thomas move on and Michelle. Will make one strong application from the council.

Legislative VP – write Spackman Moss or Janie Iwamoto for House Bill 151 in support of.

Go on PTA website to see what they support and do not support.

9th Grade Party: Emily Bonham & Jen Goldsberry – Heather updated – May 25th

$5 donation cost for food, activities and tee shirt - still working on planning

Yearbooks Wednesday, Party on Thursday. Looking into Lagoon.

Past Events:

January 19th: Lunchtime activity – Wendy Mabey & Meggan Felts – fun, used left over candy; have popsicles in freezer still from welcome party (112) for prizes

January 23rd: Top Dog – Tiffany Rich – great harvest cookies (10 doz donated and 10% off the rest) 370 kids on High Honor Roll and 111 on regular Honor Roll

Upcoming Events:

February 9-16: Valentine Fundraiser. Ms. Fulton is supervising. Sales and delivery go for a week. Parents can also purchase valentines in office. Money is used to fund SBO organized assemblies and activities.

Feb 15-16: SEP Teacher Meals – Jannika Meier

Feb 21-24: White Ribbon Week: Annual Net Smart Assembly 10:20 am – cyber bullying, social media, etc

Feb 23 – Lunchtime Activity in conjunction with White Ribbon Week “dunk that junk” – “watch the cookies”

Feb 17-20: No School

Mar 17: Spring Stomp Scheduled - $300 DJ is great at policing kids and playing good clean music;

$50 balloons and decorations, and cookies $. Rule in Junior High: only allowed 4 stomps.

Look into possibly having a stomp as an “assembly” for the end of the year to up attendance.

Make it as a motivation to “reward” students for their effort in school work. Have other activities as well at stomp to include more kids – example: ping pong

Principal Wagstaff Report:

His newsletter contribution this month will give more info on SAGE and benefits of SAGE testing

SAGE benefits school and guides instruction, also benefits students as they learn to take test

Next meeting: Next Meeting Tuesday, March 7, 10 am in room 315.

Meeting adjourned: 11:00 am

Minutes compiled by: Heidi Dudley, PTA Secretary
