SKYLINE HIGH SCHOOL ANNOUNCES NEW FOOTBALL HEAD COACH

Salt Lake City, UT, April 8, 2021 – Skyline High School is pleased to announce that John Rowbotham has been hired as the new Football Head Coach. He is currently transitioning into his new position.

Coach Rowbotham was a high school football and track athlete at Skyline High School with three football state championships as a Skyline Eagle in 1995, 1996, and 1997. He went on to play football and pursue his education at Dixie Junior College, where he competed in the Junior College Football National Championship. He then spent time playing football at both the University of Utah and Pacific Lutheran University where he was recognized as the “Most Inspirational Player” in both programs.

John graduated from Pacific Lutheran University in 2003 earning a Bachelor of Arts in Physical Education. After college, he worked as a strength coach at the University of Utah working with both men’s and women’s teams.

Most recently, Coach Rowbotham worked as the Strength and Conditioning Coach and Safeties Coach of the Skyline High Football Team. He is also the CEO/President of a company that conducts camps, clinics, professional development, certifications, and weight room evaluations.

The Skyline High community is invited to look to the future of the Skyline Eagles Football Team with excitement!

Skyline High School is the top rated public high school in the State of Utah according to U.S. News and World Report.
