Christmas Food Giveaway – Helps low-income people in Salt Lake City and throughout Utah, Contact: Crossroads Urban Center

Candy Cane Corner is a program that allows low-income families who participate in YWCA Utah, The Road Home, and Volunteers of America, Utah to choose new holiday gifts for their families. Case managers recommend clients upon request.

Marine Toys for Tots in Salt Lake City offers free toys to disadvantaged children up to age 12, but some locations extend the age limit. They accept requests from individuals, families, and charities. Request a toy online.

Salvation Army Salt Lake City helps people in times of crisis and need. At Christmas, they sponsor Angels Trees for children up to 12 and seniors over 60. They also run an adopt-a-family program and serve Thanksgiving and Christmas meals to the community.

The Giving Grinch helps supply everything from socks, coats, dolls, trucks, as well as a Christmas Dinner to families in need throughout our community.

United Way Salt Lake works with its partners to provide all kinds of help for people in need, including Christmas toys, groceries, meals, gifts, and clothes

2Hands Christmas Help in Utah has an online registry where residents can post a wish, chat, or get information. 2Hands emphasizes that not all posts receive help. Posts are public, and donors volunteer to meet the needs when possible. It may be worth a try but not guaranteed.

Catholic Community Services of Utah helps refugees, low-income, and homeless of all ages with groceries, meals, and other kinds of aid. They run a dining hall to feed families in need. They also host a Holiday Coat Drive so that the homeless and refugees have a gift to open on Christmas that will keep them warm!

Crossroads Urban Center, a nonprofit run by United Methodist Women, operates food pantries and a thrift store. The charity also hosts a Holiday Food Giveaway every year.

Salvation Army

The Salvation Army provides help to low-income families in need of Christmas gifts and other resources during the holiday season and different times of the year. You might be able to get help from the Salvation Army with specific toys for your children.

Toys for Tots

You might be able to get help from Toys for Tots. They offer toys for families struggling at Christmas and in general. You will need to visit their site to find out more about what they do in your area and how to sign up for their help!

The following resources are for pretty specific groups of people but may be helpful.

The National Holiday Project

Website: <http://www.holidayproject.info/> The Holiday Project organizes visits to people in nursing homes, hospitals and other residential institutions. We give our volunteers an opportunity to contribute to others and we create an opportunity for those we serve to contribute to us. We bring the spirit of a holiday to those who would not otherwise have a celebration, enriching the experience of a holiday for everyone.

The Angel Tree- Prison Fellowship www.angeltree.org/angeltreehome
Founded in 1982 by an ex-prisoner who witnessed firsthand the strained relationship between prisoners and their children, Angel Tree has grown to become the largest national outreach specifically for the children of prisoners.

Military Families Trees for Troops <http://www.christmasspiritfoundation.org/>
Give Christmas trees to families that are in the military.
