

You are invited to attend a free parent workshop!

Supports for Adult Success: What Parents Can Do Now (Because Our Children Will Grow Up!)

March 2, 2017

8:50 AM – 2:30 PM

Granite Education Center
2500 S. State Street, D-102, Salt Lake City, Utah 84115

- What is your plan once your child with a disability enters adulthood?
- How does your child develop a plan for the future if he/she has significant disabilities?
- Does your child with a disability pick up needed skills not taught in the classroom or the unspoken rules in society?
- Do you see your child receiving further education and training once he/she leaves the school system? What if he has significant disabilities? What if she has mild disabilities but struggles in school?

Are you concerned? You are not alone! Come Join Us to Learn About . . .

8:50 -9:05 AM	Check in/Registration, Housekeeping
9:00-10:35 AM	Person Centered Planning is a team approach that helps youth put together an action plan and allows for a support system to be put into place.
10:50-12:20 PM	Families Helping Youth Develop Soft Skills such as communication skills, interpersonal skills, decision making skills, independent living skills, lifelong learning skills, etc.
12:20 - 1:00PM	Lunch on your own (Cafeteria on site)
1:00 – 2:30 PM	Life After the IEP . . . Getting Set for Lifelong Learning. We all love to continue to learn throughout our lifetime. This workshop will investigate what types of learning can take place once our youth with disabilities leave the public school system.

Parents, Professionals, Young Adults and Youth with Disabilities are Welcome!

Pre-registration is requested and appreciated.

Register online at: <http://conta.cc/2I1qAc6> or by calling 1-800-468-1160 or 801-272-1051

This workshop is brought to by the Utah Parent Center in partnership with and Granite School District, Canyons School District, Salt Lake City School District with funding provided by Interagency Outreach Training Initiative (IOTI) and ASPIRE.